TASK 4: Comprehension - Food Safety

Section 2

18. Based on the passage, name two ways in which diseases can be spread to our food.

Process: Literal
Objective: Identify main idea from text

2 mks - Complete understanding:
The response indicates both the use of unclean water and improper storage of foods (which can be accessed by rats).
Examples:
- Through use of unclean water to cook food
- By storing foods where rats can get to it or by not storing foods appropriately
- If we don’t wash our hands thoroughly before preparing food
- Damaged packaging e.g. cans
- When we do not wash fruits which have germs on them

1 mk - Partial Understanding:
The response identifies only one way in which diseases can be spread.

0 mks - No Understanding:
The response does not describe any of the ways above. It may include the following suggestions:
- By letting flies buzz on it
- By leaving it out
- Open packages in our foods
- Defrosted meat
- Cholera
- Salmonella
- If there is a hole

20. Why do you think the words “buy cold food last” (line 5) are all in bold letters?

Process: Evaluation and Appreciation
Objective: Understand that texts have purposes and are written for audiences

2 mks - Complete understanding:
The overall aim is for emphasis or importance (i) to emphasize/show importance of following/heeding the advice given/following the instruction, OR (ii) to emphasize/show the importance of the words/pay attention to the words/ highlight the words for the reader.
Examples of responses:
- To get your attention and also so that you can remember it
- It is an action we need to take in order to stay healthy
- The author wanted to grasp the reader’s attention
- To emphasize and catch the reader’s attention
- To let people know that it should be taken on as advice

1 mk - Partial Understanding:
The student provides only one of the responses with minimal information/no elaboration:
- It is very important
- To emphasize
- For emphasis

0 mks - No Understanding:
The response does not describe any of the ways above. It may include the following responses:
- So that the fish and other poultry would not thaw out
- The cold stuff makes it last
- Because bacteria begin to grow in the food
- So that they would not dry out
- When you buy cold food it will last very long
21. According to the passage, suggest two reasons why a refrigerator is important in a home.

Process: Inferential

Objective: Explain cause and effect relationships in texts

2 mks- Complete understanding:
The response includes ANY two: for storage of foods, to keep foods frozen and to prevent foods from spoiling/rotting.
Examples:
- And it stores things you buy in the grocery
- So it can keep your foods/goods cold
- So that bacteria won't grow on foods/Help foods stay bacteria free
- To put raw meat
- It lengthens the time of the food before it thaws
- To keep your goods/foods from spoiling
- We can put all cold things in the refrigerator

1 mk- Partial Understanding:
The response provides only one of the responses above.

0 mks- No Understanding:
- One way is if you cook, it will be good for three days
- If you don't want the juice to drip from raw meat
- To keep insects such as flies away from your food
- To freeze bacteria
- It will always last
- To keep foods safe to eat for longer

NOTE TO SCORERS: Both responses may be expressed in the same sentence.

22. What are the health benefits of storing packages of raw meat and fish on plates in the refrigerator?

Use the passage for your answer.

Process: Inferential

Objective: Demonstrate an understanding of supporting details and show their relationship within text

3 mks- Extensive Understanding:
A complete response would include food safety- preventing juices from meats coming into contact with other foods which would cause contamination and make persons ill, if the food is eaten.
The response for extensive understanding should include a combination of all three below:
1. Bacteria and germs will not grow/or contaminate other foods and so prevent illness
2. Juices from thawed meats will not come in contact with other foods and spoil them
3. It will prevent us from harm /It will keep our food safe for eating
Example:
- The health benefit is that you have less likely chance of getting food poisoning

2 mks- Satisfactory Understanding:
The response for satisfactory understanding should include a combination of ANY two from above.
Example:
- To keep us safe by preventing juices from leaking onto other items, because if the refrigerated items have germs it might contaminate food and make us sick.
- Their juices would not drip on other foods and get us sick (implied that the other foods have been contaminated)

1 mks- Minimal Understanding:
The response for minimal understanding includes ANY one from above.
Example:
- So that their juices would not drip on other

2. Cans should not be damaged
3. Check labels for expiry dates
4. Read nutrition information to see what it contains | 0 mks- No Understanding: The response does not describe any of the ways listed above. It may include a vague or circular description of the original question. Example: • Put it in the refrigerator. • Tasting or sampling the food • Ask someone or check online about the product |

NOTE TO SCORERS: Both responses can be expressed in the same sentence.
24. Find the following caption shown in the passage.
Why should you not purchase this item? Give two reasons for your answer.

Process: Informative
Objective: Demonstrate an understanding of supporting details and show their relationship within text.

2 mks—Complete understanding:
The response includes both the damaged can and the expired food item.
1. The can is damaged.
2. The item is expired/date has gone/out of date.

NOTE TO SCORERS: Both responses can be expressed in the same sentence.

1 mk—Partial Understanding:
The response identifies ONLY one from above. Other information may be provided, once it is not contradictory, award the mark.
Example:
- Because it is expired and all the nutrients will be lost and it’s not good.
- Bacteria could have gotten into the food because the can is dented

0 mks—No Understanding:
The response does not describe any of the ways listed above. It may include a vague or circular description of the original question.
Example:
- The barrier is broken
- It was not frozen
- Not good
- Not safe to eat the food
- We can be poisoned if we eat it
- The can is broken/burst

25. What is the meaning of the word “transmission” in line 19 of the passage?

Process: Literal
Objective: Determine the contextual meaning of words and phrases in factual texts

1 mk—Acceptable responses:
The response includes any of the following below:
- To spread
- To share/sharing
- To distribute/distribution
- Movement/transferred
- From one to another

0 mks—Unacceptable responses:
The following responses are unacceptable:
- To enter
- Break the coming of germs
- Bacteria
- Destroy
- Pathogens
- Exchange
- Give off
- Passing off
- Passage
26. Select one word from the passage that means the same as “pathogens”.
Process: Literal
Objective: Determine the contextual meaning of words and phrases in factual texts

1 mk- Acceptable response:
The response includes germs, the alternative word indicated by the use of the word ‘or’.
Other acceptable words include: disease(s), bacteria.

0 mks– Unacceptable response:
The following responses are unacceptable:
- Health
- Food safety

27. Suggest two things that can happen if you continue to use kitchen towels and cloths that are not washed often.
Process: Inferential
Objective: Identify supporting details from the text

2 mks- Complete understanding:
The response identifies two of the things below that can happen:
1. Germs will spread everywhere in the kitchen.
2. You might become ill/sick/get cholera.
3. Bacteria can live in towels/bacteria build-up/bacteria growth.

1 mk- Partial Understanding:
The response includes only one of the above.

0 mks– No Understanding:
The response does not describe any of the ways listed above. It may include a vague or circular description of the original question.
Example:
- It would make the job difficult the next time.
- Insects on the cloth

NOTE TO SCORERS: Both responses can be expressed in the same sentence.

28. What do you think is the purpose of this passage?
Use the details in the passage to explain your answer.
Process: Inferential
Objective: Explain the purpose of selected media texts.

3 mks– Extensive understanding:
The response includes informing/warning persons about food safety, shopping for food and preparing food.
Examples:
- To warn people and help us about food safety, shopping for food and preparing food.
- To inform us about how and why we should always be careful when buying, storing and cooking our food.
- To inform families of food safety, stuff to be careful of when shopping for food and tips for preparing your food safe and

1 – Minimal understanding
The response does not mention inform or other similar words explicitly. However, it mentions at least two of ANY of the following: food safety, shopping for food, preparing food. OR
The response mentions inform or other similar words explicitly with only one of the following:
food safety, shopping for food, preparing food.
Examples:
- To warn about the dangers of products because it tells you that you must wash your hands before preparing food.
washing up after.

2 mks-- Satisfactory understanding:
The response contains at least the idea of informing persons (explicitly stated) along with ANY two other aspects: food safety, shopping for food, preparing food.
Examples:
- To inform us how to keep our food safe from germs and bacteria and to prepare our food.
- To inform us about food, cooking and cleaning hazards.
- For us and other people to be more aware of the food we eat and buy.

- To know how to handle bacteria from in their product and how to be bacteria free.
- To learn the pros and cons or strategy in cooking food items, so no bacteria could infect you or others.
- For safety of food and kitchen cloths and towels and cold food (preparation of food).
- To prevent diseases and stay healthy.

0 -- Unsatisfactory understanding
- To watch what you are eating and what to do.
- To save people from this nation and other countries from getting ill.

2 - Complete Understanding

The response identifies two words or phrases that appeal to the sense of hearing.

- howls, clatter, clang, bang, shout, deafens, noise
- wind howls, sheets clatter and clang, shut with a bang, noise that deafens, steadily pours the rain, children shout

1 - Partial Understanding

The response ONLY includes the identification of a text-based mood. No example given.

0 - No Understanding

The response does not include any aspect of the text asked for in the question.

- Trees sway

30. Identify the mood in stanza one (1) and give one example to support your answer.

Mood:

2 - Complete Understanding

The response demonstrates a complete understanding of all the elements of the question. The student identifies an appropriate mood and this is supported by details from the poem pertaining to Stanza 1 only.

Examples of possible moods:
- threatening, excitement, fear, anxiety, surprise, terror, scary, scared, frightening, frightened, gloomy, worried, a very fearsome mood

Examples from the poem:
- The loose house tops sheets clatter and clang
- The loose house tops sheet clatter and clang
- The sky makes night of day
- The wind howls
31. ‘And the sky makes night of day’ (line 4).
What does this line tell the reader?
Process: Inferential
Objective: Use context-clues (word structure clues, definition clues) and background knowledge to determine the meaning of words or phrases

1 - Acceptable understanding
The response indicates that the storm clouds/storm has reduced the level of daytime visibility so it appears to be like at night.
Examples:
- Despite being daylight, the sky becomes dark like night
- There’s a lot of cloud cover so it is dark, but it is still daylight
- It is very dark, but still daylight
- It is very dark
- The sky was very even though it was day
- The sky is as dark as night
- It is still day, but the sky is dark (very dark)
- The sky turns dark/ the sky is dark
- The sky is turning dark/ the sky was turning dark
- It is overcast

0 – Unacceptable response
The response does not demonstrate understanding of the aspect of the text asked for. The ideas expressed are too vague or assume a literal understanding.
Examples:
- Tells the reader it is raining.
- It is getting dark (onset of night) and it is time to sleep.
- It tells the reader that the moon turn night of day.
- It tells the reader it is evening/night is coming.
- The clouds have gone dark

32. Why were the parents described as ‘Burdened with a thousand minor cares’ (line 6)?
Process: Evaluation and Appreciation
Objective: Make judgements on the behaviour of characters.

1 - Acceptable understanding
The response includes an understanding that the storm was coming and they were fearful for the safety of their homes and children.
Example:
- They had to ensure everyone and everything was safe.
- They were scared of what the storm would do.
- Their children were out/missing and the storm was coming.
- There were many things to be done/they were preparing for the storm/.
- They were worried about their children.

0 – Unacceptable response
The response does not demonstrate understanding of the aspect of the text asked for. Responses include ideas that are too vague or they paraphrased a line from the poem.
Example:
- The sky made night of day.
- They were worried.
- Refrain their houses
- A lot on their mind
- Because of a bright flash by the storm.
- Because the mirror could break.
- They have a thousand things to take care of.

| 3 - Extensive understanding | The response includes a complete understanding of the clearing of the streets by persons, their subsequent occupancy of homes because of the approaching storm or bad weather.
- Everyone went inside as the storm came, and the streets were empty.
- People were so scared of the storm that they quickly cleared the streets and went in their houses.
- People are looking for shelter to not be outside due to the rainfall.
- The neighbourhood was preparing for a storm and they would have to seek shelter.
- Everyone is inside because of the weather. (implied understanding that they have moved from the streets into their houses) |
| 2 - Satisfactory understanding | The response does not include the storm as a factor influencing the movement of persons from the streets to their homes.
- Everyone was getting off the streets and safely into their homes.
- The streets were clear with no one and houses were filled with people. |
| 1 - Minimal understanding | The response ONLY includes one aspect of the text addressed in the question.
- Everyone went for shelter.
- Everyone was inside.
- The storm is coming. |
| 0 - Unsatisfactory understanding | The response does not demonstrate understanding of the aspect of the text asked for. The ideas expressed are too vague or assume a literal understanding. In some instances the information supplied may be contradictory.
- Is to fill up with a lot of water
- The children are finished playing
- The rain was so heavy and the storm was extremely bad, the houses started to overflow. |

2 - Complete Understanding
The response includes the identification of an appropriate purpose accompanied by one example of supporting detail.
- To inform about all the activities that will take place on the day.
- To inform readers about safety practices.
- To persuade persons to attend the event.
- To advertise the event.

Supporting details should include aspects from the poster.

Examples of answers:
- To raise disaster awareness: earthquake safety, how to build an emergency kit.
- Prepare for a disaster: earthquake safety, T&TEC Safety, how to build an emergency kit.
- To advertise/promote: it gives the date, the time (students may provide the exact time and date).
- To inform people about the event; it gives the words ‘learn’, ‘demonstrations’
- To let you know what to do during a disaster; drop cover, hold on for earthquake, to let you know about safety with water and electricity.
- To persuade people to attend; support: free food, entrance, opportunity to win a gift.

1 - Partial understanding
The response ONLY includes the purpose; supporting information is irrelevant.

0 - Unsatisfactory understanding
The response does not include a purpose (whether explicitly or implicitly stated) and the support is unclear or vague. The purpose is unclear or vague; however, they may have included some relevant support.

Example:
- The purpose of the poster is T&TEC Electricity; two things to support my answer are safety and demonstration.
- To appeal to the driver: free things to eat and learn how to protect your things.
